

Federation of European Microbiological Societies

CURRICULUM VITAE GUIDE (Max 3 pages)

I. General information:

- Name
- Citizenship, country of residence
- Contact info: e-mail, telephone
- Education (institution, exact date of graduation, speciality)
- Work experience, incl. current position
- Membership of scientific organizations

II. Research and development activities:

- Publications & patents; h-index (WoS), ORCID # if available
- Research grants obtained (programme or project, source of funding, amount of funding, project start and end year.
- For Research & Training, Industry Placement, Meeting Attendance Grant applications:
 - List of peer reviewed publications
 - List of international meetings with active participation
- For Meeting Organizer Grant applications:
 - List of the most important publications of last 6 years

III. Experience in science management and administration - if applicable

- Experience in organization of scientific conferences and meetings
- Participation in the activities of promotion and dissemination of science
- Other experiences in science management (incl. participation in the editorial panels of scientific publications, series, books; development and administration of databases and science collections)

IV. Professional development - optional

- Professional development in the specialisation, incl. traineeships, scientific conferences and workshops:
 - please provide the full list for Meeting Attendance, Research & Training, Industry Placement applications;
 - please provide the last 5 years for Meeting Organizer applications.